Join us for an update on Electronic Communications in the Workplace.

Guest speakers will include:

Attorneys from Epstein Becker & Green, James Flynn and Michael McGahan, will present – “All A Twitter: The Legal Issues Arising From Using Social Media In and Around The Workplace”

This session will include a discussion about the implications of applicants and employers using such media as part of the recruiting, hiring and the disciplinary process, the use that employees may make of such media in workplace organizing situations, and how human resource professionals can deal with both of those scenarios. Jim Flynn is a member of the Firm, co-chair of its Intellectual Property Litigation Subgroup, and frequently advises clients on all manner of matters concerning the protection of confidential information and dealing with technology in the workplace. Michael McGahan is also a member of the Firm, and focuses his practice on traditional labor matters representing employers in a wide range of industries including health care, hospitality and theater.

Steve will address the subject of social networking, online media and how they impact our work.

Join us after the program for some Holiday Cheer! – Light refreshments and wine will be served
